Strong Resolutions.

(Murray City News.)

Saturday evening the central committee of ward township organization, met in Murray City and organized. The meeting was well attended and great enthusiasm was exhibited by all. The central committeeman was accompanied in part by the executive committeeman and by an unanimous vote C. A. Chatfield was chosen chairman of both central and executive committees and by an other unanimous vote. Ode Donley, was chosen secy of both committees. This makes Messrs Chatfield and Donley chairman and Secy of the township in connection with the county organization also of the central and executive committee of the township organization.

A joint meeting of the central and executive committee was fixed for Friday evening June 29th, 1906.

The following executive committee was selected:
Charles Kerr Coal presinet.
C. A. Chatfield, Murray.
Ode Donley, Jobs.
Frank Stephenson, Blatchford.

The following resolutions were read and adopted unanimously.

Whereas, Hocking county has been thrown into a state of turmoil and chaos by factional differences growing out of the attempts of a few to control the many for personal aggrandizement; whereas, our county has been thrown back into the ranks of Democracy because of false and unscrupulous leaders in Logan assisted by unprincipled followers in various precincts and; whereas, we believe in the voice of the people, the principles of the Republican party and the promotion of the better interests of the masses, therefore:

Be it resolved, that we the central committee of Ward township and of the Logan organization in meeting assembled, denounce Bossism in every form and use our best efforts to defeat it's every endeavor to brow beat, hoodwink and deceive the people. Resolve that we exclude from our organization as much as possible the tools of Bosses and do all that lies in our power to further the interests of the party and those who are worthy of out support. Resolve, that we demand candidates for county office in proportion to the Republican votes we cast for same.

Resolve, that we denounce in the strongest terms, the attitude Senator Charles Dick has taken in Ohio politics. We believe, that he has acted without principle, judgement or honesty in trying to build up Bossism and oppose the will and wish of the people at large. We believe that he holds his exalted position through dirty politics and we firmly believe, that he and his knavish subordinates, were the direct and indirect cause of the defeat of Gov. Herrick for his second term.

Resolve, the we cooperate with the Republicans of the rest of the county, who believe in the voice of the people, but that we retain at all times, our township organization for the purpose of defending and promoting our fellow citizens who have been sadly neglected and ignored by Logan politicians and their associates.

Resolve, that we call our organization "The Ward Township Free Republicans" and that we tie ourselves to no faction or factions but that we render ourselves indispensable to the county and those who depend upon the voice of the people for success.

Resolve, that we endorse and warmly commend the administration of President Roosevelt. We believe, that he is a Republican in every particular and that he ranks next to Lincoln in greatness and ability and patriotism.

The question has arisen in the county seat as to what kind of Republicans we are in Ward.

We can tell it in the plainest and most simple style, we are Abe Lincoln and Teddie Roosevelt Republicans, we are Republicans who believe, that the party is greater than any man in it, we are Republicans who believe, that Bossism belongs to a by gone age. We are Republicans who cannot be whipped or threatened into line by bulldozers, salve spreaders or hoodwinkers. We are Republicans who believe the nation is bigger than the state of Ohio, who believe, that Gen. Dick and his cohorts ought to be kicked out of the party until they learn to adhere to the principles of truth and honor. We are Republicans who are lined up for Roosevelt and ready to pull our coats in his defense but button them up when Dick speaks.

Yes, we are Republicans from the ground up yet we will not take off our hats to the rogue or rogues who get between us and our party, we will knock them out of the way either one way or an other.

Stands on Guard.

The hour is at hand when every Democrat, who is really convinced of the eternal principles of Democracy, must stand guard about her.

Not only must he be vigilant to raise cry of alarm when the foe assaults from the outside, but he must be ready to detect and resist the far more deadly enemy, the traitor, who would betray from within.

Once more the people cry unto William Jennings Bryan to lead them out of the wilderness of fraud and corruption into which false guides have set them.

That call will be answered, if the people are wise and true. They must not only be faithful and diligent themselves, but they must be able to know who else is faithful.

They must not be deceived by apparent zeal and vigorous protestation.

They have been misled and betrayed in the past and they will be misled and betrayed again, if it is within the power of craft to do so.

The call for the nomination of Bryan has become so general and spontaneous, that some fellows already realize it is not to be denied by force, so they have joined in it and are trying to make it appear they lead it.

Watch them. They are not to be trusted. They are the ones, who discovered Parker and builded a gold standard platform two years ago. They mean to do a like thing in 1908.

Democrats, begin to thwart them now. In their hands the party machine is well nigh all powerful. See that they are not possessed of it for the future. Begin the work of dispossessing them this very year. Go to your primary meetings and see that only Bryan men, staunch and true are placed as delegates and committee. It is going to be a fight and we have got to win the skirmish posts, if we would win the final battle.—The Portsmouth Times.

Off to the Work House.

Orley Guess, the unlawful unhitcher, remover, user, and turner loose of other people's horses, left here yesterday for a sojourn in the pleasure resort popularly known as the Columbus Work-House. He was attended by Sheriff Williamson.

FIRST MATINEE RACES JULY 4

Good Racing. Good Band Music

AT THE FAIR GROUND.

No Charge for Admission to Grounds.

Good racing, good band music at the Hocking county fair grounds. Everybody invited. No gate receipts. Everything free. A big, funny time expected; everybody come and see the matinee races composed of farmers and city folks and their horses.

There will be about six races composed of trotters and pacers classified in their various classes in which they belong. Also in connection with the racing program, there will be a real mule race under the saddle in which Secretary Ruble already has three entries and expects several more mule entries by the Fourth, and it is whispered around that Maud may make an entry here in the free for all mule event and you know Maud always cleans up in the finish. "Hee Haw!" This mule race will be on the novelty plan. All mules make a start from a standstill under the wire and are allowed to trot, pace or run. The first mule arriving at the quarter pole wins one prize and there they join up again and the last mule under the wire at the finish wins the prize; so on; mule can really win two prizes here in one race if he is both fast enough and slow enough, and all mules must be kept on the move all the time, and if anybody thinks they are slick enough to catch the greased pig or climb the soap pole and make it known in time, they may have a chance. The club committee has arranged for a good band for the Fourth; the band will remain in town until noon, then everybody will make haste to the fair ground, where the races will be called promptly at 12:30. All persons or members of the club are requested to make their entries with the secretary of the club, S. S. Ruble, on or before July 1st, so that classifying committee may have ample time to classify all horses as near where they belong as possible. Following are the rules adopted by the Matinee Club:

Dates of race meeting are to be announced at the preceding business meeting as made with secretary.

All entries close at nine p. m. four days before each race meeting.

An entry made by a club member is good for the entire race season unless party making entry fails to participate in three consecutive meetings.

All horses shall finish races in same class of rig they started in.

Hobbles are barred, (unless all parties in races consent for hobbles to be used on any horse competing in same race.)

Any member objecting to the classification of his horse at any meeting as made by club committee, shall be fined one dollar and stand suspended until the fine is paid.

The classification committee may make a mixed class of pacers and trotters.

The Thing Is Settled.

The DEMOCRAT-SENTINEL, of Logan, names William J. Bryan as the next president of the United States and prints the picture of the "Boy orator." Well, it is gratifying to have the thing settled. The Republican party will have a ticken in the field for appearance sake at least.—Athens Messenger.

On next Wednesday evening, July 4th, the Logan Orchestra will give a dance at the Red Men's Hall. All dancers and their friends are cordially invited. Dancing from 8 p. m. to 12. The full orchestra of nine pieces will play and Mr. Harry Rose will be floor manager.

The United States Faces Revolution

By J. FRANK HANLY, Governor of Indiana

THE American people are at the beginning of a great revolution. As yet there is IN A LITERAL SENSE no call to arms. There are no drum beats, no bugle blasts, no serried ranks, no marching columns, no battlefields strewn with the wounded and the dead, but THE REVOLUTION IS UPON US and about us as certainly as though all these were present. Stupendous social, economic and political changes are involved. Deeply imbedded in the very core and center of this revolution, running like a thread of gold through all its shifting scenes and changing forms, are certain FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF HUMAN RIGHT and of human liberty, and unless we in our day possess a willingness to seek for these and the wisdom to find them and the patriotism and the courage to proclaim them, to stand by them and SAVE THEM WHEN FOUND, the call to arms, the drum beats, the bugle calls, the serried ranks, the marching columns and the battlefields will come to us as certainly as in the past they came to our fathers.

The criminal aggressions of incorporated and aggregated wealth against the individual must be stayed by legal regulations and wholesome laws COURAGEOUSLY ENFORCED or history will repeat itself, as it has in the past. We will no more be exempt than other generations have been. Progress must and will be made.

Human rights, the rights of the individual citizen or the rights of the body of the people are not safe where government is administered BY SPECIAL INTERESTS or through the corrupt or demoralizing influence of organized wealth and greed. No despotism can be more absolute than the DESPOTISM OF MONEY.

Thrift, wealth and aggregated capital are essential to the prosperity of the people and the development of the country. I wage no war against these or any of these.

BUT I DO WAGE WAR AGAINST THE THRIFT THAT GROWS BY THEFT AND PECULATION, AGAINST THE ABUSE OF WEALTH, AGAINST THE CORRUPT PRACTICES OF INCORPORATED CAPITAL AND THE UNDUE AND UNHOLY INFLUENCES IT EXERCISES IN THE ADMINISTRATION OF GOVERNMENT.

I do not look with pleasure either upon "muck" or the "muck rakers," but either is better than the "muck bed," and as long as the "muck bed" remains I hope the "muck raker" will continue to expose it AND TO LAY IT BARE; that the people may come to hate it, to despise the greed that feeds it and to forsake every man whose hands are soiled with pollution.

The Deadly Monotony of Men's Attire

By HENRY HOLIDAY, Famous English Artist

THE deadly gloom and monotony of men's dress—one of the scandals of the age—is traceable to CLASS INEQUALITY and the scramble for wealth. There was a time when sumptuary laws regulated the dress of the different classes, but free men did not tolerate this, and there we now no longer any sharp distinctions between the dress of the different grades of society.

John Stuart Mill declared that it was the chief aim of people to get out of one rank of society INTO THE CLASS ABOVE IT, and it follows, therefore, that each class endeavors to dress like the one above it.

The aristocrat wears a top hat, a black tubular coat and light stovepipe trousers. The wealthy merchant or banker is compelled to dress EXACTLY THE SAME.

To introduce the smallest mark of individuality or to indicate by one's dress one's calling in life would be to lose caste. There is a ridiculous understanding in society that a gentleman is a man who does not earn his own living and it is therefore incumbent on every one "in society" to wear a dress which looks as though its owner could not do any work in it.

In the same way the larger trader copies the merchant, and the smaller tradesman apes the man above him, AND SO ON RIGHT DOWN THE SCALE, until even the workingman turns out on Sundays in the top hat, black coat and stovepipe trousers.

If there were no classes no one would be afraid of losing caste, and consequently every one would consult his own comfort and convenience in his dress.

WE CAN HOPE FOR NO RADICAL CHANGE IN OUR DRESS UNTIL WE HAVE ALTERED OUR SOCIAL SYSTEM. SO LONG AS THE GREED FOR PROFIT CONTINUES, SO LONG WILL OUR DRESS BE VULGAR.

Vacations Are Coupons On the Bonds of Industry

By MARCUS M. MARKS, President National Association of Clothiers

WE have no right to live only to do business. Business is a means, NOT AN END. If a business man does not early cultivate a taste for the higher things in life he becomes so absorbed in the game of business that later on he CANNOT be happy without it. After he has a competence he continues in trade, like the squirrel going around the wheel, for lack of something better to do. He cannot enjoy leisure, though he has fairly earned it.

Many an old merchant has told me with pride that he "never took a vacation in his life." I could not understand his pride. Vacations are the coupons on the bonds of industry that MATURE SEMI-ANNUALLY. Out these coupons regularly, so that they in their turn may be vitalized and earn interest.

It may seem to some that vacations are a loss, an extravagance. Quite the contrary; they are ECONOMICALLY A PROFIT. As a man can in the long run do better work in six days than in seven, so he can do better work in six months than in seven. Some merchants have the cynceit that they cannot be spared. Let them go away, and their VANITY will receive a SHOCK. They will in most cases discover that the machine will move smoothly without their presence.

IF A MAN'S IDEA OF HIS INDISPENSABILITY IS REALLY WELL FOUNDED HIS BUSINESS ORGANIZATION IS A FAILURE.

ARMOUR AIRS THE EXPOSURES

Claims Export Trade of Packers Has Been Badly Damaged.

ALL EUROPE URGING BOYCOTT

Asserts, However, the American Meat Industry Can Not Be Destroyed by Political Revolutionists and Sensational Journalism—Chicago Packer Home From Europe.

New York, June 27.—J. Ogden Armour, head of one of the largest Chicago packing houses, accompanied by his wife and daughter Lolita, who has been under the care of Professor Lorenz in Vienna, arrived here on the Kronprinz Wilhelm. With reference to the recent investigation of the packing houses and suggested legislation, Mr. Armour said: "The packers will welcome any good inspection law and any suggestion for improvement. The better the law the better they will suit the packers. All the talk about discrediting the packing industry of this country was unnecessary and, above all, was untrue. The packers have tried to improve their facilities and make improvements generally." Lolita, the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armour, showed but slight trace of lameness and looked the picture of health.

Armour made public the following statement regarding the recent packing house exposures:

"On summing up what has been said about the packers and what has been done to the packing industry, one naturally inquires: 'What has become of our boasted American fair play?' One of the largest American industries has been attacked, and attacked without reason, in a way that has discredited American goods of all kinds abroad. All over Europe there is open agitation for a boycott on American products."

"The entire export trade of this country has been badly damaged. To estimate the total loss now would be merely guesswork. It may run into the hundreds of millions. When American industries are slandered by persons who pretend to speak as Americans, it is to be expected that foreign competitors will take advantage of it."

"But the American meat industry can not be destroyed by Socialist agitators, political revolutionists, stump speakers, sensational journalism running amuck. It has existed for 40 years. Its products have made their way into every quarter of the earth on merit. They speak for themselves. They are good today as they were yesterday. If they can be improved they will be better tomorrow. Slander may retard but can not stop good merchandise from finding a market. The inspection now in force in all the larger packing houses makes the sale of diseased meat from such houses impossible."

BREWER MISSING.

Five Thousand Dollars' Reward Offered For Information.

Pittsburg, June 27.—Five thousand dollars reward for information leading to the finding of Michael Liebel, Sr., a millionaire brewer of Erie, Pa., was announced in this city. Liebel left his home on May 25 for Buffalo, from which place he telegraphed his family he was about to start for home. When he did not arrive detectives were called into the case, but no trace of the missing man has been found.

French Budget.

Paris, June 27.—Finance Minister Poincare introduced the budget in the chamber of deputies, showing a considerable deficit in consequence of the extraordinary military preparations during the Moroccan crisis, amounting to $50,000, and also $30,000 owing to increased expenditure resulting from internal reforms. Definite proposals have not yet been formulated, but the minister suggested that in order to meet the first indicated deficit a loan would be necessary, and that as to the other item, a rearrangement of taxation would be necessary, comprising an increase of 30 per cent in the succession duty, an augmentation of the duties on spirituous liquors and the transfer of real estate, and the suppression of fraud in the manufacture of alcohol.

Disorders Among Troops.

St. Petersburg, June 27.—Dispatches from Vladivostok, Caucasus, report the outbreak of disorders among the troops forming the garrison there. Mutinous artillerymen bombarded the officers' club, where a dance was in progress, with stones and also fired some shots, causing a panic among the dancers. One woman was wounded. Delegates from all the regiments participated in a great popular meeting, where a resolution was adopted to the effect that in case of an anti-Jewish outbreak, which it was rumored was likely to occur, the troops would defend the citizens against the Black Hundreds. Military discipline at Vladivostok has gone to the winds. Soldiers have openly insulted General Zhevetzki, the commandant, in the streets.

Couple Struck.

Marshalltown, Ia., June 27.—Robert Showalter and Abbie Shumay, each 18 years old, were struck by lightning here. The girl was fatally injured. Showalter's recovery is doubtful.

Governor Harris to Speak.

Hamilton, O., June 26.—The program for the dedication of the Butler county soldiers' monument July 4 has been announced. There will be a civic and military parade in the morning and in the afternoon Governor A. L. Harris and D. D. Woodmansee of Cincinnati will deliver addresses. Aaron meat to the people of Butler county Wesco, Esq., will present the monument and Mayor William F. Thomas will make the speech of acceptance.

The Universal Can't

There was a city one time that had a certain amount of street work to do, and it was done at a large expense. When the authorities were cited to the enormous figures attending that job, and their lack of economy criticised, they protested with their eyes to heaven and their hands on their beating bosoms, that the work could not be done for a cent less.

It happened, however, that another city had exactly the same work, at a cost at not a quarter or an eighth of that contracted in the former city, and when this example was cited also, the authorities only replied, "Well, we couldn't do it at no such prices, try as hard as we might."

The country is full of such cases. Cost is a widely diffusive matter when it come to expense in corporate or public affairs. It proceeds upon rules and reasons that do not prevail in private concerns. "Why," said a person confronting an accounting officer who had disallowed sundry items in his expense account, "the great United States isn't going to cut a man down to any such shabby allowance as that!"

The officer returned: "The great United States is only great when it does justice to the people, and paying for all this extravagance of yours is not doing justice to the people—it is doing them an outrage." So many people think it is weakness to pay any attention to economy if the public or the stockholders have to pay the bills. There is so much of the "let her go, Gallagher" spirit in public or corporate expense, and the indifference is always backed up by a "can't"—a "can't" that has a large measure of incapacity or dishonesty mixed up with it.

It is always a serious thing to give out a big contract, not only because of the pickings along the way, but because at the outset, the enterprise may exceed the needs, and many demands connected with it may be only feats of the imagination.—State Journal.
